

CORDOVAN LEATHER

Known as the most expensive and sought-after leather in the world, Cordovan Leather is used exclusively by Italian tailors. You can now scent your space with the decadent fragrance. With top notes of Jasmine and Styrax, mid notes of Leather, and base notes of Velvet Woods and Musk.

Cordovan is an equine leather made from the fibrous flat connective tissue (or shell) beneath the hide on the rump of the horse. The leather derives its name from the city of Cordoba, Spain, where it was first produced by the Visigoths in the seventh century. It is a difficult and expensive leather to make, and in the late 19th was mostly used for razor strops to sharpen razors in barber shops. More recently it has been increasingly used for shoes, wallets, and watch straps due to its aesthetic qualities and exceptional durability.
